SAN DIEGO FUTURES FOUNDATION NAMES TWO NEW MEMBERS TO THEIR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

San Diego, CA – June 07, 2007 -- The San Diego Futures Foundation (SDFF,) a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, recently appointed two new members to their Board of Directors. An organization chartered to make information technology available to the broadest range of San Diego County residents through the delivery of hardware, software, communications and training, the San Diego Futures Foundation is enabling a broader range of citizens to access technology resources.

The new members of the board of directors represent a broad and distinguished group of community and business leaders:

Ken Harth

Regional Vice President, Government, Education & Medical Representing AT&T

Mr. Harth currently serves as a Regional Vice President for AT&T, and is responsible for all Government, Education and Medical sectors within Southern California. As a 20 year veteran of AT&T, he is a proven executive. Mr. Harth has held numerous leadership roles, including Director of the Federal Government Team, Healthcare, Advanced Enterprise Solutions and National / Global Markets. He received his business degree from the University of Texas.

Helen N. Robbins-Meyer

Assistant Chief Administrative Officer, County of San Diego
Representing the Public At Large

Ms. Robbins-Meyer currently serves as Assistant Chief Administrative Officer for the County of San Diego. As the County's second-highest ranking executive, she works with the Chief Administrative Officer in a chief operating officer capacity to implement the Board of Supervisors' policies and to manage the fifth largest county in the United States, which has a workforce of 17,000 employees and an annual budget exceeding $4 billion. Ms. Robbins-Meyer holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government from the College of William and Mary. In addition, she has completed numerous executive management and leadership courses at Stanford, UCLA and Duke.
